

February

This week in...Literacy

We completed our Winter FAST testing this last week! It is always fun to see the progress that is made from Fall to Winter testing!

1st Graders worked on visualizing this week. Creating a picture in our heads while reading helps us better understand a story.

We used our visualizing skills to better understand the character and setting of a story.

FEBRUARY SNACK

Our snack cupboard is running low! Please send a February snack to school with your child within the next week or two. Thank you! 😊

Reminder!

Parent/Teacher Conferences are a couple weeks away! The online conference scheduler will open next week. Please watch for more information about scheduling your spring conference!
